Roald Dahl

Early Life

Roald Dahl was born in Wales in 1916. When he was growing up, his mother loved to tell him stories about trolls.

What did he do?

He flew planes in the Second World War and got badly hurt in a crash. He loved telling bedtime stories to his five children, which gave him the ideas for his children's books.

Roald wrote his stories for four hours every day in his garden shed. He wrote twenty children's books, including The Twits, The BFG, Matilda, and Charlie and the Chocolate Factory.
