

English Speaking Countries

Hello, I am Mr Homer and my favourite English speaking country is the United Kingdom because the countryside is very beautiful. The thing I like most about the UK are the people, who are usually friendly and very funny.

THE FLAG

The flag is called the Union

Jack and has three colours.

FAVOURITE FOOD

My favourite food is a roast dinner with chicken and Yorkshire Puddings.

FUN FACT

The Queen will send you a card to wish you happy birthday when you reach 100 years old.

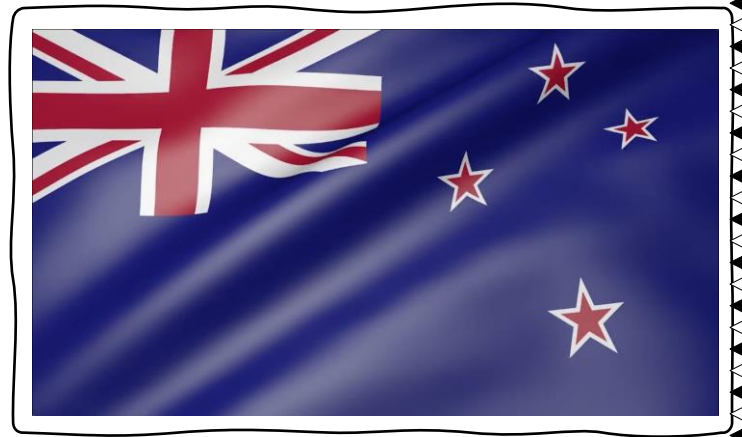

English Speaking Countries

Hello, I am Miss Nimaga and my favourite English speaking country is New Zealand because there are many fun outdoor activities to do there. New Zealand is also famous for its beautiful views and friendly people.

THE FLAG

The flag is called the New Zealand Ensign.

FAVOURITE FOOD

My favourite food is called Hangi. It has lots of meat and vegetables.

FUN FACT

People from New Zealand are called Kiwis. This name comes from the name of a bird which is the national symbol of New Zealand.

English Speaking Countries

Hello, I am Mr Young and my favorite English-speaking country is The United States of America because there are many beautiful places there. What I like the best about the USA are all the wonderful people who live there.

This is the flag of the USA. It is called the stars and stripes and it has three colors.

The American Flag

FAVOURITE FOOD

Thanksgiving Dinner

Every year in November, Americans have a special dinner of turkey and many other side dishes.

FUN FACT

There are fifty stars on the flag which is one for every state in the country.